DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 30-34 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stearns et al. (U.S. Pat. 6160705).

Stearns et al. disclose a semiconductor device comprising:

a substrate 14 (cover fig.) having first and second opposing surfaces, the substrate comprising:

a signal lines 22, a plurality of first power lines, and a plurality of second power lines on the second surface (fig. 6, column 7, lines 20 et seq.); wherein one or more of the plurality of signal lines 22 is between a pair of the plurality of first power lines 50 and 56, and further wherein the signal lines between the pair of the plurality of first power lines and the pair of the plurality of first power lines are between a pair of the second power lines 58;

an integrated circuit chip 28 is mounted on the substrate.

- Regarding claims 31 and 34, Stearns et al. disclose the signal line is of a first width (the straight portion), the first power lines are of a second width (the shorter width of the circular portion), and the second power lines are of a third width (the widest width of the circular portion).

Art Unit: 2814

- Regarding claim 32, Stearns et al. disclose the third width is wider than the second width, and the second width is wider than the first width.
- Regarding claims 33 and 36, Stearns et al. disclose a ground plane 16 on first surface of the substrate (fig. 1, column 4, lines 47-51).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 35 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stearns et al (U.S. Pat. 6160705) in view of Sheldon et al.

Stearns et al. disclose the claimed invention except for not specifically point out that the first power line coupled to a first voltage potential, and the second power lines coupled to a second voltage potential.

Sheldon et al. disclose the first voltage potential power line is coupled to provide a first voltage potential and the second voltage potential power line is coupled to provide a second voltage potential (abstract) to the DC driven device such that the second voltage potential is different relative to the first potential. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of Stearns et al. to provide the two different voltages for the safety circuit system, as shown by Sheldon et al.

Claims Allowed

Claims 1-22 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Beddingfield et al. fail to disclose the metal layer at the first surface of the insulating layer has a plurality of electrically insulated openings for outside electrical contact and the package device provides high mutual inductances and minimized effective self-inductance.

Stearns et al. fail to disclose the metal layer at the first surface of the insulating layer having a plurality of electrically insulated openings for outside electrical contact.

Therefore, the claimed invention is not shown in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
